

Our Purpose & Gardens

Friends of the New Hanover County Arboretum is an independent, non-profit organization established to enhance and support the New Hanover County Arboretum in Wilmington, N.C. Through memberships, events, and sponsorships, the Friends raise financial support for the gardens and programs at the Arboretum. As ambassadors of the Arboretum, we share our passion of imparting a love of nature and knowledge to the Wilmington community in ways that will enrich our community plus preserving and improving our environment and teaching future generations to respect and enjoy nature.

The Arboretum's seven-acre campus is a horticultural laboratory which includes:

- Traditional Japanese Gardens & Teahouse
- Children's Garden and Cottage
- Sweeping Perennial Border
- Rose Garden and Camellia Walk
- Butterfly Garden
- Pollinator Garden
- Woodland Garden
- Commemorative Contemplation Garden
- Water Gardens
- Koi Pond
- Herb and Vegetable Gardens
- Native Plant Garden
- Shade and Dry River Bed Garden
- Picnic Areas
- Propagation Greenhouses
- Plant Clinic open to the public
- Gift Shop
